Vienna, December 15, N. S.

ADVICE was brought hither by the laſt Courier from France, that Orders had been actually ſent to the Marſhal du Bourg, concerning the immediate Evacuation of the Places of the Empire, in Exchange for the Ceſſion of the Dutchy of Bar. General Seckendorf is ſet out for Hungary to viſit the Winter-Quarters, and to put the Places and the Troops there into as good a Condition as the preſent Circumſtances of this Court will allow; and the Prince of Hildburgſhauſen is likewiſe gone to appeaſe the riſing Tumults on the Side of Croatia: Thoſe People thought it was againſt their Privileges to furniſh Winter-Quarters like the Hungarians, and in that Perſuaſion they put themſelves into a Poſture to oppoſe the Entrance of ſome Cavalry into their Diſtricts; upon which General Suckau, who commanded that Body of Troops, had the Prudence to halt: There are likewiſe Grievances of an older Date; but it is generally expected that the Prince of Hildburgſhauſen's Preſence will diſſipate theſe dangerous Beginnings.

Hague, January 4, N. S. The King having met at Sea, when advanced 18 or 20 Leagues towards England, a great Storm and contrary Wind, was obliged to return to Helvoetſluys, where his Majeſty ſafely arrived on the 1ſt Inſtant in the Evening, as did likewiſe four of the Yachts and three Men of War; but the Charlotte Yacht was miſſing. His Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange went on the 2d to Helvoetſluys to wait upon his Majeſty, and returned hither this Morning with the Satisfaction of having left his Majeſty in perfect Health. M. Fenelon, the French Ambaſſadour, has given Invitation to the Foreign Miniſters and ſeveral other Perſons of Diſtinction, to ſup with his Excellency on Sunday next, being Twelfth-Day. Both he and the Imperial Secretary were in Conference Yeſterday with the Deputies of the States, as was likewiſe this Day Mr. Trevor.

Helvoetſluys, Jan. 7, N. S. On the 3d Inſtant in the Evening came in here the Sheerneſs Man of War; and the 5th in the Morning came Advice, that the Charlotte Yacht was got into Terveer in Zealand.

HARRINGTON.

And for a further Encouragement for the Diſcovery of ſuch Offender or Offenders, I do hereby promiſe to pay the Sum of Thirty Pounds upon the Conviction of ſuch Offender or Offenders, to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall be intituled thereto. Cecilia Garrard.
